

A ROARING 20's EXPERIENCE

Dinner & Silent Movie

featuring LAURAL AND HARDY

One day only!

Elkhart, Indiana Group Package
 Thursday, May 16th at 1:00pm

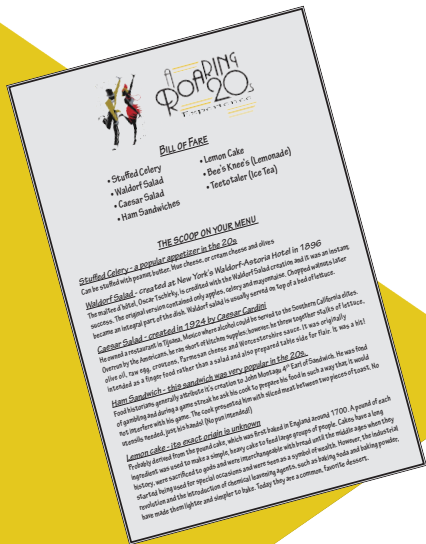

Laurel and Hardy were a comedy double act during the early Classical Hollywood era of American cinema. The team was composed of English thin man Stan Laurel and American fat man Oliver Hardy. They became well known during the late 1920s through the mid 1940s for their slapstick comedy, with Laurel playing the clumsy and childlike friend of the pompous bully Hardy.

As you enter the gorgeous chandeliered lobby of The Lerner in downtown Elkhart, Indiana, take a step back in time. This magnificent theatre was built in 1924 as a vaudeville/movie palace and restored to its original opulence as a state of the art performance and event venue.

As the lights dim, the 1,000 pipes of the restored Kimball organ (one of only 3 installed in its original location in North America) fills the auditorium with music performed by talented organist Clark Wilson, one of the most prominent and recognized scorers of silent photoplays in America today. You will be transported through time as you experience a silent film with all your senses, and may even find yourself lost in the moment, roaring with laughter and applause, just as the crowds at The Lerner did nearly 100 years ago.

To complete the experience, before or after the silent movie, enjoy a 1920's vintage luncheon at the beautiful Meadow Brook Barn Event Center. NOTE: Meal time options are 11:00 a.m. or 4:00 p.m.

Options to complete the day at an additional charge, include:

- Scavenger Hunt (customized to your group)
- Tour of the 1860's historic Meadow Brook Farm House & Grounds
- Touring an exceptional art museum featuring the Midwest's largest collection of Norman Rockwell signed lithographs
- A lavish Beaux Arts mansion
- A stunning botanical garden

NOTE: Any optional additions to the movie and meal will be based on your scheduled arrival and departure time.
